Objective

My Name is Mubashira Kadavath. I have been teaching English for five years now. I would like to get a job of an English teacher at your Institution, starting a new life here, rediscovering passion for living and working. Other than that I am just normal human who enjoys meeting new people, reading, travelling and learning new stuff. Since I read a lot, I find myself comfortable conversing about all sorts of topics, which I believe will be extremely helpful in conversational lessons with the students.
